

Institutional Outcome 2017-18

Bachelor of Science

1. Our staff is very senior and highly qualified, we present basic to higher level of understanding of the subject.
2. We use different method to analyze the given scientific data systematically and develop the ability to draw the objective and conclusions.
3. The guidance of acquiring the skills in handling various scientific instruments and reforms in laboratory experiments.
4. Our faculties always available to explain the basic concepts, fundamentals, principals and quires related to varies subjects and their role in day to day life
5. We always insist our student to apply the knowledge of science in daily life by that their understanding to face day to day problem in chemistry to teach our student that using filtered oil is always better than refined oil and both are better than Vanaspati ghee purches small pack of oil.
6. We all insist them practical session of science subject are very much beneficial to understand extract of science like importance of PH for healthy system.
7. Our college premises is in very near to dense forest. We insist the student to maintain good health. Use of Herb is easily available in nearby forest such as Aawla, musli, Neem, Hirda, Behla etc.
8. We arrange blood detection camp, industrial visit by menace of which we inspire student for their personality development and awareness.
9. We encourage the B.Sc student to develop scientific temperament and attitude.
10. We are living in a wonder world of electronics. We encourage the student to acquire the basic knowledge of principle and application of electronics. Student will get the ability to identify almost all the components and their working principles. Practical in this course will definitely enable the students to service of repair basic electronic equipment.
11. We encourage the student to acquire the knowledge of computer hardware and software programing. We collaborate IIT Bombay through Spoken Tutorial to learn computer software more easily and deeply.
12. We arrange programme and empowers the graduates to appear for varies competitive exams and entrance test to choose the first graduate courses.
13. Through the mode of observation, precision, logical thinking analytical mind, clarity of through and expression, we made .graduates design making and confident.
14. We inspire the student through mathematical branch so that they will becomes eminent scientists in future and it is very beneficial to the socity as well as our country.

Bachelor of Arts

1. Students acquire the knowledge in the field of social science, literature and humanities.
2. Students learn to inculcate the human values for once transformation of behaviors.
3. The programme develops the skills of reading, writing, listening, The programme develops the skills of reading, writing, listening as well as communication as well as communications.
4. The programme helps the student to develop a sense of social and civic responsibility.
5. The programme provides a platform to students to exhibit their hidden talent by organizing various co-curricular and extracurricular activities.
6. The programme helps to understand the relationship of man with the environment and helps them to change their attitude for more positive for proactive ecofriendly and sustainable lifestyle.
7. Students would gain the fundamental knowledge of social, economic, historical, geographical, political, ideological and philosophical and thinking.
8. The programme empowers the students and provides valuable guidance for preparation of various competitive examinations after graduation.
9. Students learn and apply the experience of programme in their practical livelihood life.
10. Students acquire the leadership qualities and democratic attitude.
11. Students acquire the knowledge for the spirit of social commitment.